MURDER CASE HEADS LIST

Criminal Court Will be in Session
Two Weeks, Beginning Monday.

THREE COURTS WILL BE GOING

Judge Noyes Will Assist During the First Week—Jesup Murder Case to Be Tried First and the South Side Case During Second Week.

District Attorney John B. Jones has arranged the criminal trial of 250 cases of criminal cases for the two week term of assessor and quarter session court, which will begin next Monday. The first case on the list is the one in which Pasquale Perretto is the defendant, indicted of the crime of murdering John Demarco, of Jersey City, one Sunday evening last spring. That is a capital case, too. Joseph, alias John Wlinski is the defendant, indicted of the murder of Felix Barkowitz on the South Washington avenue flats last May.

Judge Charles H. Noyes, president judge of the Thirty-first judicial district, who presides over the counties of Fayette and Warren, will be here to assist the local judges. He is one of the Democratic nominees for judge of the Superior court. There will be three courts in session during the term. The trial list is as follows:
